Catcher for Alcos Clouts Lougest Hit Ever Made at Broad Street Park. Feat Only Duplicated Here by Two National League Players.

The Alco team, of the Old Dominion The Alco team, of the Old Dominion League, defeated Burk & Co. in both wames of a double-header at Broad Street Park yesterday afternoon, and thus removed all obstacles from their lip to Washington to represent the dity in the intercity series, with the exception of the Ashlanders, who yesterday won two games from the Battle Axe aggregation.

The Ashlanders, who have captured the pennant of the Capital City League, will meet the Alcos at Byrd Park next saturday in the opening game of the linal series to decide the city's representative team in the amateur class.

The Burks were hopelessly out-lassed when they went against the sloos yesterday, and the results of the wo games were never in doubt. In the first five innings of the first set-to the clothing boys made it an uphill light for the locomotive builders, when they tied the score, two all, in the second inning, and prevened the Alcos from taking the lead until the sixth

In the sixth inning cleven men faced fones, and eight of them scored on clean hits, the final score being 14 to 3 n favor of Alcos. The box score shows that every man on the Alco team secured one or more alts during the contest. Dowden and Asher got three each, two of Dowden's

Pierce and Walthall were selected to to the mound honors in the second game, Pierce going the entire route, while Walthall was pulled after allowing the Alcos five runs in the first frame. Allen, who relieved him, went well until the eighth, when he was hit afely five times, walked two, which relied five runs.

afely five times, walked two, which tetted five runs.

During the second game, Tignor irove the ball over right field fence. It was a longer hit than any Virginia eague player has ever made upon the ocal grounds, only two National league players have duplicated the eat. Tignor also hit a triple during he game, and fielded his position in vestiont manner.

The spectators who witnessed the Mee team is the strongest amateur ggregation ever seen in action at Broad Street Park. The scores: FIRST GAME.
